SCHREIBER NEWS

Burke Pollard and his wife Gail, and their infant daughter Kerri Dawn were baptized by Rev. E.C. Prinselaar at the morning service in St. Andrew's United Church on May 14.

Mrs. Barry Harper visited Marilyn Pearson in Winnipeg last week.

Mrs. Arthur LeBlanc is in Winnipeg with her mother who is ill.

The men of St. Andrew's United Church will give their annual tea on May 26 in the church hall. This is an occasion which by its very difference, from the usual ladies teas, attracts large crowds to enjoy the outsize sandwiches, tea poured from practical huge enamel pots and especially the harried waiters attempting nonchalance they far from feel.

MOTHERS DAY TEA AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

A new array of charming Centennial gowns were worn at the Mothers Day tea sponsored by St. John's Anglican church when Mrs. A.C. Rigelsford, President received with tickets sold by Mrs. Bob Gray.

Tea was poured by Mrs. J. Bryson (cont'd Page 16)
