MIXED-UP MANNERS - many a woman who considers it bad taste to use a wrong fork, doesn't seem to mind having a man eat out of her hand.

WHO'S TWIGGY? A skinny lithe mini-waife with a Cockney accent and a pathetic expression that makes her one of the world's highest-paid models. She's the ideal, the one with the look. Now there are "Twiggy" fashions. One is a vested pyjama suit with zipped front and ascot in colour-splashed crepe. Another "Twiggy" is a front-zipped baby dress with squared armholes and fly-away collar -- cool in pristine eyelet with scalloped hem.

WHERE HAVE ALL the flowers gone? Gone are the fluffy, frilly, prissy hats. Here come smooth, sleek, sophisticated straws and felts with brims turning up, down or half and half. The Sombrero, Safari and Aussie are the big three; white the big colour. Trims are non-existent or narrowed to a band of grosgrain ribbon. A smart and practical shade from the summer sun.

YOU NEEDN'T SMOKE to wear the smoking ensemble. Essentially a pantsuit but with a difference. The styling is softer, more feminine. A frilled blouse, silky vest or crepe slip-on peeks from beneath the long, loosely casual jacket. A huge floppy bow, usually jet black, punctuates the throatline. Fabrics are rich, sumptuous and always soft, velvet, supple wools, heavy silk crepes. Trim is limited to an outline of satin or grosgrain ribbon or jacket details. Sew it for late summer into fall!

PLATFORM PARTNERS that are guaranteed to uplift your spirits as well as your feet. Newest shoes from the Continent are grounded on 1/2 to 1 inch thick soles. Toes are wide open and heels boosted and tapering in reverse from a wide bottom to a narrower top. Brings back pre-war 1930's nostalgia in any case.

CLEVER CUTIE... peek-a-boo lace gently shaped into a baby-shift with its own little head triangle to match. What makes it clever? You make it from a 54 by 72 inch lace tablecloth. Sew it minus lining and facings. Bind edges, including hem, with silk to match or clash. Make tiny French seams by sewing 1/8-inch in, with wrong sides facing. Turn right sides together and stitch again. For a nude look cover-up beneath, dip a slip in strong coffee.
