Mr. Kenney departed from tradition by giving honourable mention to Rachel St. Louis who was runner-up in each of the awards - a case, Mr. Kenney remarked, of being always a bridesmaid, never the bride.

Guest speaker at the ceremonies was Father Cano of Schreiber who called upon the students to pay tribute to their mothers and fathers who made possible their graduation from elementary to secondary school. He asked them that in keeping their date with the future, they should continue to love, appreciate and respect their parents.

Later in the week the Public School held their evening Awards Presentation in the basement of the Community Church. (continued on Page 7)
