must also set down any charges he intends to make if the borrower should default on payments.

Cooling-off Period

This new ruling applies to sales made by itinerant sellers, which is the Act's name for sellers who operate away from their permanent place of business, and who make a charge to the buyer for the privilege of buying on time.

A contract made with an itinerant seller can now be cancelled by the buyer, provided he does so in writing and delivers the cancellation to the seller personally, or by registered mail, within two working days of the contract being signed. If he cancels in this way, the buyer must return any goods already supplied, and the seller must return any money or trade-in which he may have received. The trade-in does not become the seller's property until the two-day cooling-off period has elapsed without the buyer cancelling the contract.

Registration of itinerant sellers

As from July 31st, 1967, all itinerant sellers as defined by the Act must register with the Consumer Protection Bu-

Substantial penalties are provided for contravention of the Act and its Regulations. Lenders and sellers who are likely to be affected are urged to make themselves familiar with the Act.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

Borrowers and buyers should bear in mind that nothing in the new Act relieves them of the responsibility of making careful decisions when considering a loan, or a purchase on credit. Keep this notice as a reminder of your rights. Information on borrowing, and on credit buying, is contained in a leaflet which can be obtained from the Consumer Protection Bureau, 123 Edward Street, Toronto 2.

Lenders and sellers should make themselves familiar with the Act and its Regulations. The Consumer Protection Act 1966 and Ontario Regulation 207/67 (25¢ each) can be obtained from the Queen's Printer, 26 Broadbalt Street, Toronto 5. For advice on the working of the Act and its Regulations, see your qualified business adviser.

TEEN TOWN CENTENNIAL SUMMER FESTIVAL

Festival activities started with a parade led by the Terrace Bay Navy League Cadets on Friday, June 30th at 1 p.m. from the Ball Diamond. The official opening took place at the ball diamond with Reeve W.E. Cavanaugh officiating. This was followed by various races and contests for the children of the town. The Art Club sponsored an Artistic Paint Throwing Contest following the races, and at 6 p.m. the Moose Lodge held a horseshoe tournament in conjunction with the beach cook-out held for parents. During the evening, a street dance was held in front of the Municipal building, featuring the Torquays from Toronto. The weather was quite cool, but approximately 150 people attended.

Saturday's activities started off with a Centennial Outdoor Breakfast at the side of the Recreation Centre, followed by a Soap Box Derby at 10.30 a.m. on Lakeview Ave., sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. The winners of the various categories are listed below: Age 6 to 8 Deluxe Models - Tom Ballentine, 1st., Brady Burns, 2nd.

Age 9 to 11 - Mike Kurylo 1st, Vince Calder 2nd.
Age 12 to 15 - Jerry Papousek 1st, Ricky Hamilton 2nd.
Age 6 to 8 - Jalopy - Graham Whiteley 1st, Paul Belliveau 2nd.

In the Powder Puff events, winners were: A Event - Carolyn Yates 1st, Joan Persson, 2nd. B Event - Jane Persson 1st, S. Ballentine 2nd.

The Novelty Race winners were: Pat Heenan 1st, Mike Kurylo 2nd.

The Orienteering Race was something new, and proved to be very popular. This was held at 1.30 p.m. at the Curling Parking Lot. This will explain why so many young people were running all over town with little pieces of paper and maps in their hands.

The Artistic Paint Throwing Contest was held again at 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon. However, due to rain, this was conducted inside the Recreation Centre. The Treasure Hunt took place at 3.15 p.m. in spite of adverse weather conditions and several of the children arrived quite early for this event and were successful.
