KIMBERLY-CLARK WEEKLY SAFETY SLOGAN

Safety slogan winners receiving silver dollars last week were: Dennis Bouchie, Roy Keller, Sulo Pelto, Ron Seidel and Stan Zwaresh.

Safety off the job is just as important as safety on the job. Nowhere is it more important than on busy streets and highways. When we're driving it's so easy to forget what the word courtesy means. As for taking care, too often we're far more prone to take chances.

Let's take good safety habits with us every time we get into our cars. Then let's recall and always practice this week's safety slogan "

" SAFETY BELTS SAVE LIVES "

VOYAGEURS ARRIVE AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

The Voyageurs accompanied by Navy personnel aboard H.M.C.S. Porte St. Louis and Porte St. Jean and the Canadian Coast Guard vessel arrived at Kiwanis Beach Sunday afternoon to be received by a good crowd and their Army communications vehicles.

Camp has been set up at the high school grounds for ninety voyageurs, ten chief voyageurs, thirty-five army, ninety navy, twelve coast guard and twelve administrative personnel.

The canoeists have spent their stay here relaxing and Monday afternoon some of the men entertained at the playground sessions with stories of their adventures and with a singsong. Events have been planned for the canoeists which will give the people an opportunity to meet and talk with them. (see page 3)
