MORE WINNERS IN SAFETY SLOGAN CONTEST

Silver dollar winners in the Safety Slogan Contest last week were: Ed Nelson, Stan Sloboda, Harold Fontaine, Harry Duggan and George Martin.

Most of us depend on our hands in one way or another to earn a living. Yet too often we all take chances with our hands that could involve them in serious injury or permanent disability.

Even though wonderful artificial parts for the human body are made today who wants to settle for substitutes?

So--let's always remember this week's safety slogan:

"HANDS ARE 'WAGE EARNERS' - PROTECT THEM"

prevent forest fires

PLAYGROUND FINALE HELD IN HIGH SCHOOL

The 1967 Terrace Bay Recreation Association Playground Program came to an end with its presentation "Playground Mood '67" performed by about thirty youngsters between four and fourteen years of age, in the High School Auditorium last Friday evening.

The performance was combined with the presentation of Swimming Awards and there was quite a good turnout of children, parents and friends.

Recreation Director David Courtemance introduced the dedicated group who, for the past six weeks have entertained, encouraged, educated and enjoyed the large number of children who have taken part in Playground activities this summer. Supervisor Margaret Jean Wallwin has been ably assisted by Lorraine Belliveau, Judy McInnes and Glen Kujbida, as well as a number
