

PLAYGROUND PROGRAM (Continued from P.4) in the twenty member harmony choir. Some also appeared again in their interpretation of modern dances as seen in Go-Go Discotheque.

An amusing skit that gave parents some insight into the goings-on at the daughter's pyjama parties was presented by Joan Persson, Paulette Coupal, Linda Kelly, Marilyn Kujbida, Marlyn Macdonald Cathy Gorman and Beverly Legault.

Assisted by Mr. Courtemanche the Pool Supervisor and Swim Instructor, Lynda Barker, and Mr. C, Buck of the Recreation Association, presented awards to the successful swimmers in the recent Red Cross and Royal Life Saving Tests, taken at the end of July.

The youthful choir sang 'My Country Is My Cathedral' and a moving candlelight ceremony concluded the event.

LOCAL UNION TO HEAD LABOUR DAY CELEBRATIONS

Terrace Bay local Unions will again sponsor the annual Labour Day Program. As in the past tickets for free treats will be distributed to children up to 14 years of age. These will be delivered to the homes in Terrace Bay and Schreiber Mill employees may contact Mr.

Neil Nesbitt to obtain treat tickets.
