Rev. T.G. Husser and Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher assisted at this ceremony.

Hon. Geo. Wardrope, Minister of Mines for Ontario congratulated those responsible for the project and predicted that "meet you at the fountain" will become an accepted rendezvous in the future.

That happy melody by Bobby Gimby "Canada" was sung by a group of young ladies before M.C. J. Cummings wished everyone a "Happy Labour Day" and a happy future in the Park.

About seventy out of town guests and local citizens attended a luncheon sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and held in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel.

Reeve W.E. Cavanaugh welcomed those present and thanked the Chamber of Commerce.

Greetings from their municipalities were extended by Mayors Saul Laskin, Port Arthur ; E. Reed, Fort William; J. Phillips (representing Schreiber); by government representatives, G. Wardrope and R. Andras, P. Broadhurst, Manager of Zenmac Mines; and P. Romanuk, representing Local 665 and Local 1861. The latter also extended an invitation to all to join the Unions in their annual dance that evening.

Mr. Cavanaugh presented a replica of the park fountain complete with local gem stones to Mr. Wardrope who promised to install it in a cabinet in his office which displays the various mineral mined in Ontario. Mr. Wardrope presented Centennial Medallions to Mr. Cavanaugh and Mr. Farrow.

On behalf of Township Council and the Parks Board, Mr. Farrow presented desk pens complete with gemstones to Mr. R.K. Andras, Hon G., Wardrope, Mr. E. Reed, Mr. S.Laskin, Mr. G.L. Carruthers, Mr. J.C. Wig, Mr. J.A. Ferrier, Reeve E. Cavanaugh, Mr. J. Phillips.
