

GOLF NEWS

Peggy Wellings, Club President welcomed a good turnout of golfers to a General Meeting of the Ladies Section of the Aquasabon Golf Club, held in the Curling Club Lounge, Tuesday, October 10th.

Committee Chairmen gave their reports, indicating a most successful season. It was decided that the Ladies Section join the Canadian Ladies Golf Association of Canada for the coming year. Ladies Day will be changed to a Ladies Twilight, Tuesday Evening, on a trial basis for one month.

Elected to the Board of Directors for a one year term were Aina Adamo, Ellen Campbell, Marie Edmunds, Jan Hall and Jackie Turner.

Prizes were presented to Marg Phillips, Consolation Winner in Match Play, and to Marie Edmunds who was runner up for the Club Championship, and the Ringer Board.

At the close of the business meeting, coffee and do-nuts were served.

TERRACE BAY HIGH SCHOOL EXPANSION NEWS

Within the next two or three weeks important detailed information is expected on the High School expansion. When this information is received, the High School Board will convene a public meeting and present the program to all interested citizens. Please watch the News for further announcements about this meeting.

CANADA SAVINGS BONDS '67 - NOW ON SALE

Listed below are the canvassers who will be contacting Kimberly-Clark employees beginning October 19th to offer them the opportunity to participate in the payroll savings plan for the purchase of Canada Savings Bonds:

WOODHANDLING - Shift #1 - W. Pidluzny, Shift #2 - H. Schreoder, Shift #3 - H. Landry
PULP DEPT. - Shift #1 - B. Walsh, Shift #2 - P. Kennedy, Shift #3 - D. Riley, Shift #4 - R. Moore
STEAM PLANT - Shift #1 - A. Mercure, Shift #2 - P. Mulligan, Shift #3 - T. Turner, Shift #4 - N. Bottomley.

ENGINEERING -

Engineering Office - R. Wallwin
 Oilers - J. Garriock
 Electrical & Instrument Crew - J. Ruzyski
 Pipefitter Crew - C. Sitch
 Millwright Crew - L. Sarka
 Machinists, Auto Mechanics - R. Wills

Con't on page 10

THE SPORTS BEAT

By Glen May

Make your bets

Now that we're nearing the end of the regular Canadian Football League season it's about time to give all of the chronic losers the opportunity of "catching up."

In the following paragraphs there'll be a blow-by-blow description of who will be in the playoffs and who will meet in the Grey Cup. Also included in the package will be the Grey Cup winner and the Most Valuable Player.

And if this isn't enough, you'll find the Cup score listed in the following stanzas.

We'll begin this ESP lesson by following Horace Greely's advice and go West.

Saskatchewan Rough Riders, Calgary Stampeders and Edmonton Eskimos will make the playoffs. Calgary and Edmonton will meet in the semi-finals on a frozen field at McMahon Stadium while Saskatchewan rests in front of a TV set awaiting the survivor.

Peter Liske will pass the Cowboys into the Western Final, although a late surge by the Eks will create a melting of snow high on the Rocky Mountains. However, a couple of Stamps will receive telling injuries (they always are "telling"), and coach Jerry Williams will blame the hurts for his club's defeat in the opening game against the defending Grey Cup champs.

The second game in the best-of-three final will be a close contest, but once again, the Cowboys will be thrown.

Okay, now that you've all come back from the bookie banks, let's travel East.

Toronto Argonauts (my gawd, how'd this happen), and Hamilton Tiger-Cats will go at it in the semis. Argos will prevail when Dave Mann boots a field goal with under two minutes left and earn the right to meet Ottawa Roughriders in a two-game total point showdown.

The Argonaut myth will continue to befuddle all of those many millions who haven't read this column as the Boatmen nip Ottawa in the opener.

But wait! Frank Clair and Russ Jackson have combined in the past to slay would-be giant killers, and the second game is total destruction of the Argos.

Gee, it's 1966 all over.

Eagle Keys brings his gargantuans from the plains into staid Ottawa for the first Grey Cup to be played in the new Bytown stadium. The scotch flows faster than the Rio Grande and dignified dignitaries aren't.

During the post game show Jackson snarls that he'll enjoy revenge. Ronnie Lancaster snaps that he'll lead his team to a repeat performance. Saskatchewan is installed as a 6-5 favorite.

Okay, I know, but I can't give you the outcome yet. Just "take five" and read on faithful friends.

READY!

Ottawa, led by Bo Scott's (the MVP) running and the gang tackling of the defensive crew, smash their Western foe from the opening whistle. Jackson is superb — Lancaster suffers one of his most miserable afternoons.

The final score: Ottawa 32, Saskatchewan 10.

Now get the devil outa here and make your bets.

Oh, just before you go, remember I'm the guy who picked Baltimore and San Francisco to meet in the World Series.

Your NEWSPAPER! The Medium with the BIGGEST SELL POWER