

RECREATION FLYER (con't from page 10)

zation has selected a date for a programme, please let us know at the Recreation Office - 3542

RECREATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE - Plans are underway to establish a house league for men and young men. It is our intention to play modified International rules for the safety of the players. It is hoped that there could be some type of interlocking schedule with the Schreiber house league. More information will be printed in this paper in the near future.

ROCKHOUNDS CLUB - A meeting had tentatively been scheduled for Thursday, October 19th. However, this meeting will be held the following week - Thursday, October 26th in Meeting Room #1 (small meeting room) at the Recreation Centre. We have acquired more 'news' which should make for an informative meeting. Plan to attend. New members welcome.

KIMBERLY-CLARK WEEKLY SAFETY SLOGAN

Winners of last week's safety slogan were Norm Bottomley, John Zigman, Paul Coupal, Joe Dejonghe and John Gross.

October is 'safety month' a period designated to make everyone aware of the importance of accident prevention.

We all share in the responsibility to prevent accidents - to ensure our own safety and the safety of our fellow workers.

Apply safe work practices and assist others to avoid the hazards that can result in personal injury.

Remember this week's slogan:

"INTELLIGENT ACTS PREVENT ACCIDENTS"

MOOSE LODGE NEWS

PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVES WIN ELECTION

For the first time ever delivery of the News was held up in hopes that final results of Thunder Bay Riding provincial election would be in.

At 10.30 a.m. Wednesday morning the standing was as follows:- 98 polls heard from 6 still to go with 907 possible voters. (These are Indian polls in the far north.) Rudiak (Liberal) 3669 - Seppala (Prog. Conservative) 2781 - Stokes (NDP) 3876.

One television commentator voiced the opinion on Tuesday night that it had been an uninspired campaign with little use (except a few paid appearances) made of that media. In our riding (Thunder Bay), with its nearly 16,000 voters and many communities without television, we would say it was a campaign of great interest. This is evident in the very high percentage of voters--over 70%. In this district Schreiber and Terrace Bay both had an over 70% turnout and Nipigon (a town which has shown marked apathy in Municipal elections) had an over 80% vote.

District readers will be surfeited with campaigns and results by this time but for the benefit of the many one-time residents who read the News and are still interested in this area we have elaborated.

In all fairness we must acknowledge one thing--the bulk of Progressive Conservative campaign funds spent during this election were spent in the district in which candidates were running. This was not true of the other parties--particularly disillusioning in a party which claims to be "for the working man." Do the "working men" in a candidate's own riding not deserve a chance to provide the services needed during an election?

Months ago when detailing the provincial redistribution we commented that, regardless of party, we hoped Thunder Bay District would produce one outstanding leader. It remains to be seen if the voters have chosen that leader.

It is to be hoped that the percentage of voters who turn out for municipal elections throughout the district is as high as that in Tuesday's election. For the past few years a distinct apathy has been evident on the part of the voters in many municipalities in Thunder Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bogrand of Minneapolis were in Terrace Bay for a short visit this week. Mrs. Bogrand is the former Dawn Rowlandson whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rowlandson, resided in Terrace Bay for many years. They now make their home in Glens Falls, New York.
