COMMUNITY CHURCH CENTENNIAL SUPPER

A throng of members and friends gathered in the Sunday School rooms Sunday evening for a Centennial Pot-Luck Supper, convened by Mrs. A. Sinkins, Mrs. M. Lundberg and assisted by Mrs. M. Duriez, Mrs. D. Almos.

Rev. Husser said Grace. Various ladies and CGIT members replenished and poured tea and coffee.

A program, outlining the life of the Church in the last twenty years, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Ferrier, introduced Mrs. H. Marsh as the first secretary of the Church Board. Mrs. Marsh recalled an early board meeting. Mrs. R. Ostling, first president of the newly formed Ladies Auxiliary spoke of her memories of the meetings which took place in the church across the tracks. Fred Soughton, who was instrumental in arranging church services recalled how the constitution was set up to govern what is now the Community Church, (continued on Page 7)
