

REMEMBRANCE DAY (from Page 11)

Following a minute silence, the Lords Prayer was recited by the entire school. The choir sang "O Valiant Heart" and "Men of Canada".

Rev. J.M. Canó spoke briefly reminding them of how fortunate they are to live in a peaceful country where there is no fear of bombs and battles and it is at this time that we should pay tribute to those who gave their lives that we may live in freedom.

Mr. & Mrs. H. Lawrence leave for the Soo on Friday to attend a farewell gathering for their son Marshall, his wife and family before they leave for work as translators in New Guinea December 1.

In the Lawrence's absence, Mr. R. Affleck will take charge of Sunday School and Mr. Ron Sheffield of Port Arthur will bring the evening message at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Front - L.toR. Mary Bourke, Brenda Cebrario, Donna McGrath. Back - Tawny Owl J. Sisson, Madam Commissioner M. Shack, Tawny Owl Betty Huard. Photo by M. Furlonger.

NEW GUIDES AND LEADERS CHOSEN

A Centennial theme was used for the Fly-Up ceremony at the Guild Hall when 14 Brownies flew up to Guides. When the Centennial Caravan rolled in, it carried 12 Brownies who were flying up and two walking up.

Flying up were Mary Bourke, Mary Figliomeni, Linda Singleton, Donna McGrath from 1st. pack and walking up was Darlene Fummerton. Flying up from 2nd. pack were Elda Holland, Alma Cenerelli, Brenda Cebrario, Rosanne Speziale, Paula Gauthier, Linda Huard, Denise Perras, and walking up was Lucy Racioppi. The Brownies assembled at the toadstool and were presented with wings and certificates by Madam Commissioner Mary Shack, assisted by Brown Owls Mrs. Marcella Cebrario and Mrs. Agnes Dietrich.

Then with their caravan they moved through lines of Guides holding welcome signs and were presented to Captain Andrea Hill and Lieut. Mrs. E.C. Prinsefaar and Mrs. Edna Cocks.

Following the ceremony Guides and Brownies held a sing-song around a campfire with Guide Cathy Bottomley leading.

The evening ended with the dismissal prayer and taps sung by each group. Others taking part were 1st. pack Tawny Owls Mrs. J. Bromley, Mrs. J. Kulmatycki and 2nd. pack Tawny Owls Mrs. J. Sisson, and Mrs. B. Huard. Guides Dale Sisson and Shiela McParland.

Mrs. Shack thanked the parents attending and the C.W.L. who sponsor the groups.

In a candlelight ceremony last Monday evening Carol Ferland was enrolled into the 1st. Schreiber Guide Company.

Open letter to Town Council, Community Organizations, interested persons, Churches, Church Organizations in the Township of Schreiber -

Town Talk meeting, November 26 at 8 p.m. in the Guild Hall.

When the seventy representatives of the Churches of Schreiber closed the meeting which was organized around the topic "The Christian & Politics" a motion was unanimously passed that other such meetings would be held. The opinion was expressed that the topic for discussion should be limited to local concerns.

Within these terms of reference a meeting of November 26 is hereby called under the general theme "Urgencies for Progress".

We are inviting the residents of Schreiber to attend this meeting for the purpose of discussion and action. The theme will be discussed under the following topics - Employment, Recreation, Mental Health.

Rev. Father J.M. Cano,
Rev. E.C. Prinselaar.

Port Arthur Board of Education will offer a training program for service station attendants starting November 27. Successful graduates will be recognized by industry in the form of higher starting salary than that of an untrained employee. The 16 week course will include several aspects of the work. For further information apply immediately to nearest Manpower office or call the Adult Education Centre, Memorial Avenue.