Following the reading of several messages of congratulations to the group, Mr. Wig spoke briefly on the value of people to an organization. Reflecting on comments made by G.M, Minard, President of the World-Wide Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Mr. Wig stated that when people spend a quarter of a century with an employer this indicates the loyalty and confidence they have in their company. Establishment of a local Quarter Century Club, recognizes this service and the contribution of each person in the group toward the growth and success of the Company.

Grant Puttock then introduced three new Quarter Century Club members, all from the Woodlands Division. Richard Green, Rupert Meikle and Jack Lopenen were presented with twenty-five year pins and suitably engraved watches by Mr. Wig. The wives, Betty Green Ruby Meikle and Irene Lopenen also recieved gifts in recognition of the occasion. There were no new members joining the club this year from the Mill Division. A Lakehead group provided music for dinner and the dancing and fellowship that followed. Attending from Longlac in addition to those already named were: Ken and Kay Switzer, Austin and Tena Ste. Croix, Ralph and Florence Sexsmith, Tauno and Ebba Lopenen Walter and Marjorie Mills, Ken and Elsie McCron. From Terrace Bay: Lloyd and Rita Boudreau, Albert and Aline(Cont'd page 7)
