ARRIAGE VOWS EXCHANGED IN BETHEL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Bonita Lynn Gunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Gunter of Terrace Bay was radiant as she was escorted by her Father down the aisle of Bethel Lutheran Church in Port Arthur on November 11th, 1967, to become the bride of Eric James Nystrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Nystrom of Port Arthur. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. M. Beck and soloist Mrs. Fred Holyk was accompanied by Miss Anja Heavisto.

The bride wore a gown of pure silk crepe with cloral applique at the scoop neckling and bell sleeves. The A-line skirt was ornamented with re-embroidered applique and fell from an Empire waistline to form a chapel train. Her silk illusion headdress was held by seeded pearls in a spray of seeded teardrops and she carried a bouquet of cascading Sweetheart Roses set inside white gladiolus. She wore a cultured pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

Matron of Honor Mrs. Ilkka Kuusisto, and Bridesmaids Mrs. Alvin Rissanen and Mrs. William Mallon wore cap sleeved gowns of sky blue lace with satin trim. They had matching blue headdresses of tulle adorned with seeded teardrops and each carried a bouquet of sky blue tipped white feathered carnations.

Best man was Mr. I. Kuusisto and ushers were Messrs. Alvin Rissanen and Lawrence Creed.

For a reception at the Uptown Motor Hotel in Fort William the bride's mother received wearing a gold metallic dress with Chantilly lace coat, bronze hat and accessories and corsage of bronze tipped white carnations. The groom's mother chose a pink broeaded sheath with matching jacket and her
