TOWN TOPICS

The Junior Choir under the direction of Mr. Bert Lohr, with Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss at the organ, led the members and friends of the Community Church in their annual White Gift Service Sunday morning. Rev. C. Husser led the Processional to the Alter. The Choir, with white gowns and red ties, took their places in the Choir loft, with a background of Red and White Poinsettias on the Alter, and gaily lighted Christmas trees. Mr. Lohr read the Call to Worship, and the Congregation joined in the singing of O Come All Ye Faithful. Bevin Schritt read the Scripture lesson.

White Gifts were presented at the Alter, and included special envelopes for gifts of money, to be used this Christmas, for the refugees and homeless in less fortunate parts of the world, such as North and South Viet Nam. Patsy Megray, Leslie Cotton and Paulette Coupal read a Christmas story. Mr. Bob Harris led in prayer.

After the White Gift Service, the congregation were invited to the Sunday School rooms, where the little tots of the Sunday School presented their annual Christmas Pageant.

Masons, their ladies and guest couples from Heron Bay, Marathon, Schreiber, Rosspport and Terrace Bay turned out Friday night at a well attended Christmas social, held at the Masonic Hall. Bill Kurylo and his committee were in charge of arrangements.

The hall was gaily decorated, complete with a lighted Christmas tree. Music was supplied by two budding young artists from Schreiber, Tony Commisso and Stanley Spadoni. There were spot dances, and several novelty dances.

Friday, Dec. 8 was the date for fast moving and exciting basketball between the Marathon and Terrace Bay Juniors, Seniors, and teacher teams at the High School Auditorium. In the first game the fine display of teamwork by the Marathon Juniors saw them to the lead and keep it to win by a score of 23-7. The Senior teams played wome very good basketball. Terrace Bay had a slight edge in play over Marathon in the first half but score ended a tie. at 10-10. Terrace Bay lost their effectiveness in the third quarter and Marathon pulled ahead with a score of 22-16. Inspired by their coaches' words of encouragement, Terrace Bay put fortha burst of energy and the dying seconds of the fourth quarter saw Bob Broadhurst fouled and sink 2 awarded shots to tie the game 25-25 (Cont'd on page 4)
