

HOLY ANGEL'S HOLDS CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Holy Angel's School in Schreiber presented a Christmas festival in the high school auditorium recently with parents, teachers and students taking part. L. R. Tremblay was master of ceremonies.

The program opened with two selections by the Schreiber High School choir under direction of Miss Joan Wray and Miss Sandy Chisholm.

Next was a lively square dance with Ed Borutski as caller. Dancers were Alec and Claire Power, Doug and Fern Luke, Martin Ryan, Nora Mc-Guire, and Ed and Irene Borutski.

Clever lighting and colorful costumes created a beautiful scene for the nativity play which was directed by Mrs. Lila Morrow.

Joseph was played by J. E. Wills; Mary by Miss Holly Berndtsson; and the inn keeper by John Ribout. The choir was directed by Giovanni Cebrario. Soloists were Miss Crystal Kusik and Mr. Cebrario. Pianist was Miss June Sytitski.

Teachers in the Kool Kats are Tony Speziale, Harold Shack, Ron Lannigan and Gary Speck, at back. In front from left - Jane Syvitski, Holly Berndtson, Sandy Dennison, and Mrs. Deol.

An amusing play, Night Before Christmas, was presented by the grade six pupils with narration by Mary Bourke.

The Terrace Bay Male Choir accompanied by Mrs. Marilyn Chisholm and led by Bert Lohr delighted the audience with a medley of Christmas carols.

During intermission Tony Commisso entertained with a selection of accordion solos.

A surprise number, Kool Kats, featured teachers in cat costumes doing a dance.

tumes doing a dance.

The Terrace Bay Band, led by Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss, played several selections.

"Where oh Where did the Ho Ho go" was a hilarious comedy with Mrs. Bertha Paradis as a harassed mother trying to cope with her obstreperous children on Christmas day.

Jule Speziale, on behalf of the parents and Holy Angel's School, presented a gift to Father J. M. Cano.

SCHREIBER LEGION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Shown above Royal Canadian Legion Auxiliary officers installed 1 to r: Mrs. Davies, sec., Mrs. Rigelsford, 1st vice-pres. Mrs. B. Winters, president, Mrs. H. Nesbitt, 2nd vice-pres. and Mrs. B. Luke, treasurer.

Legion officers installed 1 to r: J. Winters, president, J. Friesen, 1st vice-pres., G. Nicol, 2nd vice-pres., L. Bourke, sec-treasurer and service officer.

-photos by Inez McCuaig

Officers of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 109 and Ladies Auxiliary of Schreiber were jointly installed at ceremonies in the Legion Hall recently.

George Cataford was installing officer and Lloyd Small was acting sergeant-at-arms. Color guard was L. V. Bourke and Wallace McCouan.

A social hour and a buffet dinner convened by Mrs. Bea McCuaig preceded ceremonies. Norman McCuaig was chairman for the evening.

Legion officers installed were Jack Winters, president; J. E. Friesen, first vice-president; Gerald Nicol, second vice-president; L. V. Bourke, secretary-treasurer and service officer; Wallace McCouan, sergeant-at-arms; and Hobden Spikula, Jack Luke and Bill Dunham, executive committee.

Auxiliary officers installed were Mrs. Bobbie Winters, president; Mrs. Vi Rigelsford, first vice-president; Mrs. Helen Nesbitt, second vice-president; Mrs. Betty Luke, treasurer; Mrs. Georgina Davis, secretary; Miss Sandra Dennison, warden; Mrs. Chris Dunham, assistant warden; and Mrs. Lillian MacDonald, Mrs. Ethel Nesbitt, and Mrs. Barbara Nesbitt, executive committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Winters who accepted a second term in office were commended by Mr. Cataford for their past year's work.

During the dinner Mrs. Winters presented a cheque from the Ladies Auxiliary to Mr. Winters to assist in the work of the branch. The couple also thanked members for the co-operation they had received during the year.

Mr. McCuaig thanked the Auxiliary who provided the dinner. A dance followed with music provided by Fred McColeman and Dan MacDonald. Mrs. Ken Davis won the draw prize.

