

-photo by L. Niiranen

Plan to attend the

GET ACQUAINTED

MIXED BONSPIEL

JANUARY 15th.

in SCHREIBER

Phone 275, 674 or 768

ENTER YOUR NAME AS SOON AS POSSIBLE
FOR GAME TIME LISTINGS

COME ONE -- COME ALL --

CURLERS -- NON CURLERS --

SPECTATORS --

EVERYONE WELCOME

MARRIAGE VOWS EXCHANGED IN COMMUNITY CHURCH

On December 16, 1967, Donna Sophrina, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Brown of Terrace Bay became the bride of Michael John, son of Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Dey of Gormley, Ont. in a ceremony performed by Rev. T.G. Husser in Terrace Bay Community Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported white velvet Empire styled gown designed with cathedral train, protrait collar and 3/4 length sleeves.

A snowflake cluster of seed pearls and rhinestones held her silk illusion fly-away veil and she carried a cascade of red roses.

The bride had five attendants - her sister, Miss Joanne Brown as maid of honor, and Misses Lynne Moores, Holly, and Carol Brown (sisters) as senior and junior bridesmaids. Little Miss Patsy Cringle was flower girl and Master Murry Davis was ring bearer. Dresses worn by the attendants were similar to the bride's in emerald green velvet and those worn by the junior attendants were in Kelly Green. All wore white gloves, white fur wedding band headdresses and carried white fur muffs and red roses. The flower girl wore a white velvet gown trimmed with green and the ring bearer wore a brown velvet suit and lace trimmed white shirt.

Best man was Albert Costa and ushers were Tony Costa and Ted Brown (brother of the bride). Soloist was Mr. Bert Lohr who sang "Wedding Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You". He was accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss at the organ.

For a reception held in the Masonic Temple the bride's mother received wearing a beige brocade suit with brown satin overblouse, half hat of gold toned feathers, matching shoes and accessories. Her corsage was yellow and gold feathered carnations. Also receiving was the groom's mother who wore a red brocade suit with matching hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of white and gold feathered carnations.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Ken Weppler and dining room hostesses were Mrs. W. Anderson and Mrs. Jan Hall. Cutting the bride's cake were Mrs. J. Clancy, Mrs. W. Kurylo and Mrs. J. Marcella.

Leaving for a honeymoon trip to the Barbados, the bride donned a gold and rust suit, brown hat, shoes and accessories. The young couple are residing at 171 Juniper Drive in Port Arthur.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. Ezewski, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. L. Loponen, Mr. and Mrs. R. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rebaud, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reeves of Longlac, Mr. and Mrs. A. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bartholemew, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robinson of the Lakehead, Mr. Neil Cornthwaite of North Bay, Mr. and Mrs. E. Davis of Bay Ridges, Ont. and Mr. and Mrs. W. Cringle of Port Arthur.

THE BOOK PIRATES OF THE FAR EAST.

The unofficial reprinting of copyright books in south-east Asia is said to be losing British and American publishers many thousands of dollars of exports. The turnover of the pirate book industry in such centres as Hong Kong, South Korea, Formosa and Macao is estimated to be about $3 million a year.

The pirate book trade is helped by modern developments in offset-litho platemaking and printing which make possible cheap direct copying of books as issued by the original publishers. Pirated books include such titles as Encyclopaedia Britannica, the Concise Oxford Dictionary, Gray's Anatomy and How to Win Friends and Influence People.

One suggestion for beating the pirates is for the legitimate publishers to issue cheap, locally printed editions of their own books and so meet the huge demand in south-east Asia for text and reference books at prices less than the cost of the imported original editions.