CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The regular meeting of St. Martin's Parish Council of the C.W.L. was held on January 13th in the Parish Hall, preceded by the Rosary. President, Mrs. H. Boudreau opened the meeting with a Prayer. Educational Convenor, Mrs. J. Santerre, gave a talk on the importance of reading good books and also mentioned the snow shoe draw to be held at the February meeting. Tickets will be available from any member. Mrs. G. Ramsay, Spiritual Convenor, read a thought provoking poem on Finding Time For God. Mrs. W. Corrigan, report form convenor spoke on report forms and the importance of filling them out correctly. Mrs. R. Boile asked the ladies to continue to save Canada Packers labels, and passed around a carving set purchased with labels. A case was made for the set and donated to the church by her husband.

Plans are being made for a bakeless bake sale to be held in February with proceeds to go to a local mission. Mrs. Boudreau expressed thanks on behalf of the League to ladies who arganized and prepared such a wonderful lunch for the Xmas party. Following the business meeting, a hairstyling demonstration was given by Miss M. Pineault using models from those present. She gave many practical and useful hints on care of the hair. Ladies found this most interesting and took advantage of the opportunity to ask about their own hair problems. Miss Pineault donated a door-prize of a hair set which was won by Mrs. G. Dashkewytch.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. E. Persson and her committee at the end of the evening.
