HEROISM RECOGNIZED AT COUNCIL MEETING

A highlight of last Tuesday's regular Council meeting was the presentation of parchment certificates to two local men, Archie Heinrich and Roaul Cormier, who rescued a fishing party, whose boat had been swamped on Lake Superior. The certificates are given by the Royal Canadian Humane Society and are signed by the President, Vice - President, and the Secretary of that organization.

When making the presentation, Reeve Cavanaugh said; "It is always a pleasant duty for Council to pay tribute to our citizens for Meritorious Services, but I must say this case to-night has special significance in that lives were no doubt saved at great personal hazards to the rescuers.

I am sure you gentlemen had no thoughts of medals when you were battling the waves of Lake Superior and it is therefore a special honour for me to-night to present to you this Certificate of Merit from the Humane Society of Ontario for the courage and quick action you performed."
