REBEKAH NEWS - by your Rebekah Reporter

Many items of interest to members of Ruby Rebekah Lodge, No.279, since your tardy reporter's last communication. On Jan.24th the Lodge held its regular meeting with N.G.Jean Fisher and V.N.G.Glorie Miller presiding. Routine business was attended to and degree practice followed with gaps in the lines due to absenteeism. It was decided that a full rehearsal of the degree team will be held following the meeting on Feb. 14th. Please make an effort to attend. Time is growing short. The Initiatory Degree will be performed on February 28th. If you have any part in this important aspect of Lodge work, be sure to get out to practise. Following practice a Social Hour will be held with a pot-luck lunch. Bring your donation of sandwiches or sweets. Members not active in degree practice will be able to have a snappy game of cards while the rest of us work (?) diligently.

At the regular meeting on Jan.10th it was decided to provide luncheon in July for a bus load of students on the yearly excursion to the United Nations Pilgrimage.

Just a little late but here's a review of the Christmas Party held on December 13th, 1967. Members enjoyed a Carol Sing, an exciting waltz step performed by sisters Bern Whent, Florence Whent, Beth McAdam, Nettie Thrower, Vic Winters - to a jaunty polka rhythm. P.D.D.P. Mavis Slater read an adaptation of the beautiful Christmas Tory and piano music was provided by Sister Norma Fummerton. Then Santa arrived--red suit and all--in the person of Chaplain Lorraine Fadden, accompanied by Santa's helper, V.G.Glorie Miller. Sister Ileen Williamson helped Santa determine the gifts which were presented to the sisters. The entertainment was followed by a sumptuous Pot-Luck Supper with the sisters seated at tables decorated with a (Continued page 11)
