WE'RE FINALLY ON THE MAP!

QUETICO CENTRE HOSTS AMATEUR FILM WORKSHOP

Quetico Centre announced that it will host Canada's first Amateur Film Workshop, April 21 - 28.

The National Film Board of Canada has appointed three of its award-winning staff members to head up the workshop: John Howe (co-ordinating producer) Dennis Sawyer (film editor) and Paul Leach (camera man). The workshop has been arranged in response to an indicated need by individuals, universities, businesses and others in North-western Ontario. It is designed specifically for the school teacher, the university professor, the businessman the home movie maker.

Workshop participants will produce a five-minute film during the week-long sessions. Also included is instruction on lighting, editing, titling, continuity, special effects as well as scenarios, scripts, shot lists, aesthetics and meaning.

Interest in the workshop is high. Participation has been indicated by representatives of business and education, some of whom are currently making use of or planning to incorporate into their programs the art of film making.
