

SCHREIBER

Mrs. Leonard O'Brien was in Markstay last week for the christening of her granddaughter, Mary Jane McDonald. Mary Lynne O'Brien accompanied her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Power had Mrs. Jim Stock and her daughter, Mrs. Marie Wheeler, visit them en route from Toronto to their homes in Saskatoon.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pearson are their daughter Marilyn, with Diane Casey of Lynn Lake; their son Carl with Marg Plank of Sault Ste Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Gilmour are visiting their son Allan and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCuaig.

The names of Mrs. Walter Murphy and Mrs. Bruce Simon were inadvertently omitted from the list of hostesses at the farewell party for Mrs. Roly Gander in last weeks news edition.

GREGOIRE-SINGLETON VOWS EXCHANGED

A wedding of interest to Schreiber friends took place in Sudbury on February 24th when Jacqueline daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Gregoire of Sudbury and Lawrence Singleton of Toronto; son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Singleton of Schreiber, were married in St. Jean-De-Brebeuf Church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Lucille and Lynn Bouchard, and flower girls were Louise Gregoire, sister, and Judy Moher, niece of the groom, of Terrace Bay. The groomsmen were Peter Chamberlain of Toronto and Terry Singleton of Schreiber. Danny Riley of Schreiber was the usher.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Singleton, Diane, Linda and Terry Singleton, Mrs. J.B. Fournier, relatives of the groom, Mrs. Richard Moher and Judy of Terrace Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chamberlain of Toronto, and Danny Riley of Schreiber.

Mr. and Mrs. Singleton will make their home at 8, Crown Hill Place, Toronto.

Then there was the father who refused to allow his teen-age daughter to join the Peace Corps, because he didn't think she could help much. After all, how many natives want to learn to make phone calls?

The man who can smile when things go wrong has probably just thought of someone he can blame it on.
