Artists, musicians and historical personages who figure prominently in History.

The Oxford Companion to Canadian History and Literature'

Here is the one indispensable book for anyone interested in things Canadian. In nearly two thousand separate articles, linked by an efficient system of cross reference, are summarized the range of Canadian Literature and the background by which it has been written.

Coho Salmon - Cont'd from front page

The secretary asked direction in dealing with requests for information on camping facilities. It was suggested that a form letter be prepared listing present facilities and points of interest.

A committee of S. Kolesar and R. Bray will investigate sites on Highway 17 both east and west of town for a welcome sign.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, April 18th.

CONGRATULATIONS! - I would like to add my congratulations to those already received by the Terrace Bay Pee-Wee All-Stars for their fine showing in winning the "B" Division Championship at the Elks Pee-Wee Tournament in Port Arthur this past week. Because of health reasons I have not been able to get to the rink this winter to watch any games, but I am sure you are all working very hard for your coach, Stan Zwaresh, and I hope you continue your fine play this coming weekend, and bring the North Shore Pee-Wee Championship to Terrace Bay. Good luck boys!
