FIGURE SKATERS PRESENT ANNUAL REVIEW

An unusually large and appreciative audience attended the annual show of Schreiber Figure Skating Club, when 9 numbers were presented under the direction of Molly Harris. The event was sanctioned by the C.F.S.A.

The lovely costumes for each number, except the Scottish ones, were designed and made by Mrs. Penny Caccamo, Mrs. Flora Bryson, and Mrs. Marlene Doig. Make-up was done by Mrs. Agnes Dietrich. Kenny Martinsen arranged the music and doubled as M.C. Mrs. Margaret Spillane was cashier and also sold tickets on the grocery hamper, which was won by Mrs. G. Birch, with Mrs. L.R. McCuaig making the draw.

Theme of the program was "A Continental Cruise" and taking part in the various delightful numbers were Lori and Vicki Strasser, Cathy McKay, Janet Morgan, Pam Spikula, Kim Karns, Margot Davis, Julie Speziale, Cathie Doig, Susan Johnson, Linda Lidkea, Cheryl Karns, Anne and Jane Bailey, Linda Huard, Rae Sisson, Pam Winters, Brenda Cebrario, Debbie Lidkea, Debbie Cook, Darlene Fummerton, Shirley Winters, Cathy Cocks, Michelle Bedard, Holly McKay, Marilyn Searles, Donna Noonan, Tina Cebrario, Vicki Krause, Marilyn Hawke, Cindy McKay, Cheryl Karns, Maxine and Elda Holland, Doris Lehto, Jane Davis, Anne Needham, Gail Bottomley, and Susan Bromley.

During intermission, four clowns - Mary Speziale, Susan Bromley, Ted Winters, and Bob Hiller, provided many laughs for the crowd.

The program ended with a number by Club Professional Molly Harris, after which she was presented with a gift by Brenda Cebrario.

UNITED CHURCH WOMEN

At their April meeting, the United Church women planned their annual Smorgasbord for May 12 in the town hall, with two sittings. Mrs. H. McCanna thanked the group for the use of their dishes at the public school Open House. Mrs. O. Niemi, sewing convenor, stated that another quilt had been finished. Mrs. F. Fummerton volunteered to superintend the children's nursery school during morning service, for the month of April. A grateful acknowledgment was received from Crossroads Centre for a donation. Mrs. B. Thrower reported the recent bake sale was most successful and Mrs. W. Clemens, president, thanked those who had contributed and worked. C.G.I.T. headquarters in Port Arthur wrote asking that leaders or councillors be supplied for the Duncan Memorial camp at Loon from July 21 to 27. Mrs. J. Crook agreed to replace Mrs. F. Macadam on the Board of Session. A letter from the Anglican Diocese asking for people to distribute and look after literature supplied by them, was handed over to Rev. Prinselaar. Plans were made to cater for a family dinner party. Mrs. W. Clemens presided and Mrs. E.C. Prinselaar in charge of devotional period
