Mary Speziale took the roll call for 56 members at the April meeting of the Catholic Girls' Club. Alma Cenerelli was welcomed as a new member by Colleen Cosgrove, president. Instead of the usual daffodil tea, it was decided to have an evening candle-light tea on May 26, from 8 - 10, when a program will also be presented of music, skits, and monologues. Aileen Ross and Cathy Anderson volunteered to assist in the Parish library during May and June. There are 33 registered for the Child Care course which will be taught by Miss Heather Crowhurst, Public Health Nurse.

REBEKAH NEWS

Ruby Rebekah Lodge, No. 279, Schreiber, Ontario held its regular meeting Wednesday, February 28th with the Lodge's Past Noble Grands opening the session, with Noble Grand Jean Fisher and Vice-Grand Glorie Miller presiding. Routine business affairs were dispatched and plans laid for the hearing of an address by Mr. Douglas Stefurak, student delegate to the United Nations.

On February 28th, the Officers and Members of Ruby Lodge honoured their Past Noble Grands in recognition of their great services to the Order. The programme was under the Covenorship of Mrs. Lorraine Fadden, assisted by Mesdames Macadam, Miller and Hamilton. Mrs. Fadden chaired the program, and Gladys Hamilton compiled and presented a scroll of all Past Noble Grands. Amusing entertainment and a fashion show directed by Elizabeth Macadam and her committee, with Glorie Miller at the piano, were enjoyed. Special awards were presented to Mrs. Agnes Sully - earliest Past Noble Grand in attendance; Mrs. Bernice Whent - latest Past Noble Grand in attendance; Mrs. Helen Wallace - Past Noble Grand who has held the most offices; Mrs. Mavis Slater - Special Rebekah Award; Mrs. Orall Wright - Past Noble Grand travelling farthest to attend; Mrs. Helen Wallace - Past Noble Grand with most initiations during term of office.

Following the programme, Gladys Hamilton and committee served a delicious salad luncheon which brought to a close an enjoyable evening.

On April 10th, N.G. Jean Fisher and V.G. Glorie Miller presided for their regular meeting, when plans were formulated for the Annual Spring Tea, under the convenorship of Mrs. Elizabeth Macadam, on Saturday, April 20th. All members are requested to provide baking and candy for the sale table. A draw for a special Easter Cake will be made. Mrs. Marion Neveski, District Deputy President, from Port Arthur, will be in attendance at the tea. Degree Practice will be held following the next regular meeting on Wednesday, April 24th.

Following the meeting, Rebekahs and Oddfellows and other interested guests were privileged to hear an address given by Mr. Douglas Stefurak, covering his visit to the United Nations last summer, which was sponsored by the above mentioned groups. He gave a most interesting and informative talk and felt this was not only an educational experience, but also an extremely rewarding one. Following the perusal of pictures and a question period, the evening drew to a close with a delightful repast under the Covenorship of Mrs. Margaret Gander and her committee.
