Flower girl Pamela Calder's ensemble accented the senior attendants.

A reception was held in the evening at the Moose Hall when Ray Belliveau was Master of Ceremonies and proposed a toast to the bride.

The bride's Mother received wearing a beige boucle ensemble - Jackie Kennedy brown hat, brown shoes and gloves and a corsage of pink feathered carnations. Also receiving was a sister of the groom who chose a mink trimmed brown suit with matching accessories. The bride's going-away outfit was a Kelly green cape suit with brown accessories and she wore a corsage of sweetheart-roses. The young couple will reside in Timmins.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's brother Fred and Doug McKay of Toronto, Miss Gail Brown of Sault St. Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nelson of Manitouwadge and Mr. and Mrs. O. MacLeod of Manitouwadge.

The brides' aunt, Mrs. S.C. Brown cut the wedding-cake.

the easily recongnized "Little Shepherd's March" was enjoyed by all.

The first musical guest artists of the evening were a newly formed group - The Bert Lohr Choristers. This is a mixed choral group, who have banded together for sheer love of singing. With Mrs. Marilyn Chisholm at the piano, the Choristers presented two songs, "Turn Ye To Me", and "The Desert Song".

The Band returned with a composition by Kenneth Henderson - "Around the Town", featuring the trumpet.

The reed section were featured in the modern Glen Miller sound of "Sweet Winds."

Next came a work of contrasting moods in modern classical vein, by Ralph Herman titled simply "Nocturne." (Cont'd on page 7)
