

GUIDE AND BROWNIE WORLD - by M. Roberts

Both Guides and Brownies have been very busy during the month of April. Already covered in this column was the Fly-Up on April 9 and the Tea and Bake Sale on April 14. On April 23rd all Guides and Brownies participated in Cookie Day. Congratulations to the girls who braved the cold weather to sell from door to door and thanks to all who bought cookies.

An up and coming event is the combined Guide and Brownie Mother and Daughter Banquet to be held May 14th at the Moosl Hall. Tickets can be obtained from the Guiders and must be purchased before May 4th. In preparation for the Banquet all Brownies are working on centrepieces for the tables, while the Guides have taken on the job of making Posters and Place Cards. At the same time we are all rehearsing our amateur theatricals to be presented that evening.

A total of 17 little girls were welcomed into the three packs during the month.

Pack 1 - Wendy and Barbara Linton, Melanie Boyd, Patty Gorman, Diane Caron, Carol Weberg.

Pack 2 - Leslie McBride, Ann Rowsome, Kathy Osmar, Fay Dakin.

Pack 3 - Anne Stephen, Janice Pytyck, Irene Bergeron, Lois Caron, Lisa Kenney, Denise Vienneau and Judy Moher.

The 1st Terrace Bay Guide Company visited Mr. D. Thompson's work shop on April 20. He showed the girls many different kinds of rocks and how to polish them.

On April 23rd, Mrs. T. Kirkup, a Physical Health Instructor from Schreiber visited the company and helped test the girls on their Keepfit Badges.

On April 20 two Patrols of the 2nd Terrace Bay Guide Company hiked to the Kiwanis Beach to pass more tests. Four girls passed their hike, fire precaution, fire fighting and outdoor fire. In order to pass their outdoor fire, the girls have to boil water and make toast in three minutes.

Several Guides are ready to pass their Hostess Badge but we need birthday parties for them to work at. If anyone is planning a birthday party and could use some help please let us know.

We are proud to announce that Wendy McMillan has received her Religion and Life Emblem. This badge takes one full year to earn and there are only two Guides in the 2nd Company who hold it.

All Guides, with parents consent, were invited to attend a sex educational film, sponsored by the C.G.I.T., on April 27, at the Community Church. The Guides wish to thank the C.G.I.T. for inviting them and a special thanks to Mrs. E. McAdam, R.N., who led the girls in an interesting question and answer session following the film.
