

YN WITH OSTING!

ome upset over
defrosting job,
er sticking apart packs of food, or become
the lack of
and endless trips
e the new "NO-FROST"
ezers now on local appliance
e bigger, better,
and never require
ver!!!

ydro

Cont'd from page 1

hockey. We've heard Ron hailed as a native of St. Louis, Schreiber and Chapleau, but we know Ron's hockey career was developed in the years he lived in Terrace Bay. Also, he's married to one of our own girls - Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Heenan, who reside here. Ron and Jane now have two sons - Jeffrey, aged 2 years and Stephen, born in February of this year.

C.G.I.T.(continued)

ladies in a fluffing party, when carnations the girls had made were fluffed.

At 8.15 the regular meeting of the Auxiliary took place, with Mrs. Donna Broadhurst presiding. She thanked the girls for taking part in the supper and preparing the Worship service. Mrs. Noreen Coe read the minutes of the previous meeting and treasurer Mrs. Maisie Sutherland gave the financial report.

Correspondence included thank-you notes from those who had been ill, and organizations to whom donations were made.

Mrs. Slomke reported that a projector has been purchased and members voted that membership in the Audio-Visual Depot should be continued.

Anyone having used stamps are urged to turn them in to Mrs. S. Jones.

The Afternoon Group will pack parcels for Crippled Civilians, and members are asked to turn in used clothing, old watches, irons, toasters, shoes etc. to be sent at their next meeting.

The C.G.I.T. Mother- and Daughter Banquet will take place in Schreiber this year.

Grades six, seven and eight of the Sunday School are going to try an experiment, having their meeting after 4 o'clock weekdays, rather than on Sunday.

A donation of $ 25.00 was given to the Library Committee to purchase new books for the Church Library.

Instead of a Bazaar this year, free-will offerings will be accepted. Little felt boots, socks or bells will be distributed to members and these will be presented at a special meeting.

Mrs. Farrow and Mrs. Mercure of the Property Committee stated they had cleaned the kitchen, which is badly in need of painting. It is to be hoped the Board will be able to include the kitchen in their "Paint-the-Church" project.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ON THE JOB.

Last Friday forty-one students from grades 11 and 12 of Terrace Bay High School participated in On-the-job Training Day in locales varying from mine shafts to business (Continued on page 11)