FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR EARL HANDEL

The funeral of the late Earl Douglas Handel, whose death occurred in Port Arthur hospital on May 3rd, was conducted in St. Andrew's United Church in Schreiber by Rev. E.C. Prinselaar, on May 6th. Mrs. Lester McCuaig was organist and the hymns chosen were Unto The Hills, and I Have An Anchor. Pall bearers were Bill Weaver, Gerry Fisher, Wally Richardson, Emmett Holland, Russell Weaver, and George Burns, the latter two from Terrace Bay, and all former companions of Earl's in the Schreiber CPR Car Shop.

Interment was in Schreiber cemetery.

Mr. Handel is survived by one brother, Jack of Schreiber, and two sisters, Adeline (Mrs. R.H. Sheedy) of Pettawawa, and Margaret (Mrs. John Spillane) of Schreiber. He was predeceased by his mother in 1932 and his father in 1949. He was a member of the Railway Carmen of America and was employed as a carman until his retirement on January 1st, 1968, being the youngest man, at 42, to be pensioned by the C.P.R.

Attending from out of town was his sister Mrs. Sheedy of Pettawawa.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE HOLDS ANNUAL DINNER IN SCHREIBER

The 13th annual dinner of Schreiber St. John Ambulance, combined brigade, was held recently in St. John's Church hall. Grace was said by Rev. R. J. Inshaw, padre and honorary president, and Rev. J. M. Cano.

Mrs. Dorothy Rummery, president, was master of ceremonies. Toasts were given by corps staff officer Helen Jartus, and Mrs. Helen Dooley.

Mrs. Earl Morgan, supt. of nursing for the Ontario St. John, provincial headquarters, Toronto, and W. P. Burnell, provincial staff officer, Sault Ste. Marie, were present from out of town along with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bray of Terrace Bay. Other honored guests were local people.

Mrs. Morgan paid tribute to the 1,100 public duty hours given by the Schreiber unit and the 50 graduates in child care course taught by St. John.

She also described the new uniforms as "more feminine and congratulated Schreiber for having a "real live nurse" to assist them.

Mr. Burnell said his concern was mainly with organization and training and was well aware of the contribution the Schreiber corps was making to the community.

Town councillor R. B. Spadoni announced that through the Emergency Health Unit a fully equipped ambulance would arrive soon for the use of Schreiber. It will be on a 24-hour duty arrangement and operators must be trained. It will be in radio contact with Port Arthur, Nipigon and Marathon.

Other brief speakers were Mr. Bray of Terrace Bay, Rev. Inshaw, J. D. Bromley, CPR superintendent, Father Cano, Mrs. Doris Gauthier and Miss Heather Crowhurst.

Later in the evening the group attended the St. John annual inspection at the town hall by Mrs. Morgan and Mr. Brownell.

It was followed by a demonstration of the spine board rescue equipment. Schreiber was the first in the district to have
