She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty Roses.

Attending her sister, Mrs. Eleanor Pollard wore a lilac satin peau de soie gown in slim fitting style, and her headdress was a circlet of matching satin which held a bouffant bow at the back of her head. She carried a bouquet of white semi-cascade Daisy Shasta Mums.

The best man was William Heinrich, brother of the groom and ushers were Donald Gresdal, brother of the bride, and William McKie.

A reception was held in the evening at the Masonic Hall. In the receiving line were Mrs. Raymond Gaulin, close friend of the bride, who wore a beige ensemble with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses, also Mrs. Natalie Coates, the groom's aunt, who wore a beige Fortrel dress, black accessories and a pink rose corsage.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Raymond Gaulin and the guest book was circulated by little Miss Dawn Leslie Tees. Mrs. Hugh Hamilton was dining room hostess and the three tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Leo Phillips.

At a family dinner held in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel, an heirloom basket arranged with yellow and white tapers and matching flowers centered the table.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Natalie Coates of Port Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hagen and Miss Swetz of Nipigon, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gaulin of Red Rock; Mr. and Mrs. W. Heinrich of Atikokan, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Westgate.

After a honeymoon in southern Ontario, the couple will reside in Terrace Bay.
