The meeting opened with a prayer for world peace led by the president, Mrs. Prina Gerow. The secretary, Mrs. H. Legault, read the minutes and correspondence. Mrs. F. Legault presented the financial statement and the auditor, Mrs. Anne Todesco, gave a report and moved same for adoption. A letter of thanks is to be mailed to Mr. W. Schelling for donating a power lawn mower to the church. A discussion was had on building a shed for the mower and garden tools. Felix Legault has offered to keep the grass cut in the church yard. Peter Gerow is to be hired again this year to water the flowers and shrubs. Arrangements were made for the housecleaning of the church. Following adjournment, luncheon was served by the hostess.

A report on the successful Mother's Day tea and penny auction was heard Thursday evening when the Ladies Auxiliary of the Union Church met at the Inn for the regular monthly meeting. The president, Mrs. T. Seppala led in the reciting of the Lord's prayer. The secretary-treasurer Mrs. Len Ibey read the minutes and correspondence. A discussion was had on improving the driveway of the church with gravel and repairs to the oil tank. The president announced that the Rev. E. Prinselaar will hold services at 3 p.m. on Sunday, June 16th, which will be the last until September. Following adjournment, the hostess served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

EIGHT VETERAN RAILROADERS HONORED

Eight veteran railroaders, locomotive firemen and enginemen, who had given 331 years and one month out of their present life span of 616 years, to the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway, were honored by their Schreiber brothers and Red Rock Lodge #387, Bro., of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, at a banquet, attended by 80 in the town hall on June 3rd.

Officials attending the ceremony included Jack Sparrow, General chairman, CPR system, Montreal; W.H. Smale, Road Foreman of Engines, Sudbury; J.D. Bromley, Schreiber division superintendent; and D.Q. Hamilton, Mechanical Supervisor, Schreiber division. Pat Guina was the M.C., with Harold McParland offering Grace and Ambrose McGrath giving the toast to the Queen.

Reg Bailey brought the good wishes of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and M.J. McGrath, those of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. George Dennis of Terrace Bay, a noted railway buff was also a guest at the occasion. The good wishes of the Grand Lodge were officially presented by Jack Sparrow to Gordon Nesbitt, local Chairman. Mr. Guina read the record of the veterans, as each was presented with a gift: R.H. Costall, the 'baby' of the group, entered service in 1923 and retired in 1968. Fred Piske entered service in 1917 and retired in 1967, holding offices of recording secretary, financial secretary, local chairman, secretary of the General Grievance Committee, and had worked every division east of Calgary. J.E. Gagnon entered the service in 1920 and retired in 1961, after being a veteran of World War 1 and a renowned teacher of the parts of the steam and brake valve. H.E. Welbourn entered service in 1917 and retired in 1960 after being a World War 1 veteran and a member of the Brotherhood for 50 years. J.D. Phillips entered the service in 1912 and retired in 1955.
