

Ceremony Marks Induction - cont'd from page 12

Shown in the photo on page 12 are: front (l to r) Erin Bourke, Bernadette Cardiff, Eva Eusebi, Mary Jane Quigg, Dianne Dietrich, Shelby Kirkpatrick, Karen Brown, Debby Bourguignon, Barbara Glad, Back row: Donna Bottomley, Cindy Ray, Cathy Mulligan, Karen Thrower, Michelle Perras, Janice Martin, Melody Ukrainec, Patty Lynn Luke, Vicky Strasser and Rhonda McIsaac.

It was a gala occasion for the 19 girls, wearing leis, flowers in their hair and grass skirts, who were inducted recently in the Schreiber First and Second Brownie packs, against a background of palm trees and Hawaiian music.

After being received the new Brownies delighted the large audience by giving a very good version of the Hula. The girls included Erin Bourke, Bernadette Cardiff, Eva Eusebi, Mary Jane Twigg, Diane Dietrich, Shelby Kirkpatrick, Karen Brown, Debby Bourguignon, Barbara Glad, Donna Bottomley, Cindy Rae, Cathy Mulligan, Karen Thrower, Michelle Perras, Janice Martin, Melody Ukrainec, Patty Lynn Luke, Vicky Strasser, and Rhonda MacIsaac.

Mrs Janet Kulmatycki was inducted as a Guider by Mrs. Mary Shack, the commissioner.

Golden Bars were presented to Cathy Cook, Ann Stokes, Bonnie Major, Sandra Commisso, Beverley Duffy, Pamela Glad, Cynda and Holly McKay, Kim Karens, Jolene and Cathy Zaporzan, Louise Morin, Valerie Rigelsford, Tina Ellicott, Darlene Parent, Pamela Nesbitt, Sandra Bourguignon, Diane Madge, Kelly McParland, Betty Anne McKenna, Jocelyn Tremblay, Vickie Krause, Linda Ray, Michelle Bedard, and Judy Lengyel.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Lidkea of Windsor, Ontario, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lidkea and other relations here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Krystie and family have driven to the West coast for their holidays.

Eddie Gerow has gone to spend the summer with his daughter Doris, Mrs. Perry Hewson, and family in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morrill and family of Toronto are visiting relations in Schreiber.

Proficiency badges for skating were presented to Holly, Cindy, and Kathy McKay, Kim Karns and Diane Madge, and to Valerie Rigelsford, for House Orderly.

To particularly mark the occasion, the Brownies were told they had permission to wear their uniforms to school the following day and were reminded June 22 is Brownie Sunday, and uniforms should be worn to church.

Mrs. Marcy Cebrario, Brown Owl, urged the girls to study for various proficiency badges during the holidays, inviting mothers to participate by making suggestions. When a test is completed an examiner will come if called. Mrs. Cebrario also stated Mrs. Arthur Moorey will accept enrolments during the holidays if the girl is seven years old.

Donna Gellert said the Brownie prayer and this was followed by the audience joining the girls in reciting the Lord's Prayer.

The Brownies gave their grand howl and sang several of their favorite action songs.

Lunch was served by the Sixers and seconds. Other leaders working the occasion were Tawny Owls Mesdames Jackie Bromley, Agnes Dietrich, June Sisson, Audrey McKay, and Packy Dale Sisson.

VOWS EXCHANGED IN HOLY ANGELS CHURCH

Photo by L. Niiranen

Yellow and white Gladioli adorned the altar in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber, June 15, for the wedding of Crystal Catherine Kusik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kusik and John Arthur Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gordon all of Schreiber.

The double ring ceremony took place at three in the afternoon with both Rev. J.M.Cano, parish priest, and Rev. E. C. Prinselaar of St. Andrew's United Church, officiating.

Miss Anna Fummerton was organist and Giovanni Cebrario the soloist. Ushers were Fred McColeman and Philip Moorey. Bruce Gordon was best man and the groomsmen were Larry Kusik and Clyde Gordon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white Lagoda Crepe enhanced by embroidered Alencon lace trimming the high empire waistline and scooped neckline. The unusual short sleeves featured matching lace trim as did the front of the A-Line skirt. The full matching train of Lagoda Crepe fell softly from the shoulders. Her full length veil of nylon tulle was caught to a pearl tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses with myrtle. Her only ornament was a gold chain with diamond centered cross, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Victor Costa was Matron of Honor, Miss Neldine West the Maid of Honor and Miss Laureen Kusik the junior bridesmaid. The senior attendants were gowned alike in sleeveless dresses of nylon chiffon over nylon crepe featuring scooped necklines with petals of the same material trimming the empire waistlines. The junior bridesmaid's dress was peau de soie in similar style. All the gowns were yellow, complemented by white elbow length gloves and shoes. They wore crosses and earrings, the gifts of the bride and their headdresses were yellow rosettes with fly-away veils. They carried nosegays of white carnations (Continued page 10)..