

ROSSPORT - cont'd from page 12

Annual visitors with the Seppala's last week were Mr. and Mrs. H. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. P. Anderson of Cable, Wisc.; Herman Ellis and George Theut of St. Ignace, Michigan.

Mrs. O. Wieben has returned from a holiday in Toronto and other Eastern Ontario points.

Mrs. G. Paradise left Friday for her home in Sioux City, Iowa.

The Ken Thorpes and Wayne Medds of Green Bay, Wisc., have arrived for their annual holiday.

Charlie Pearson holds his 14 lb. 15 oz. Lake Trout which won a weekly prize in the summer-long Rossport Fish Derby. The fish had eel marks on it and indicates that the larger fish are on the way back in Lake Superior. Fishing companions were Wes Clemens and J. Friesen.

Rune Ostling Retires - (cont'd from page 10)

Thor Olsen, a long time curler and friend of the Ostlings, made a presentation on behalf of all Runes' and Elsie's friends in Terrace Bay, and wished them well in their new home.

CARD OF THANKS - Elsie and I wish to thank all the good people of Terrace Bay who took part in giving us such wonderful memories.

A special thank you to the following groups: Kimberly-Clark Pulp & Paper Co.; the men of the Wood handling Dept; the Curling Club; the Eastern Star; the ladies of the Knitting Club; ladies of the women's Auxiliary; the ladies of the Bridge Club, and all our good neighbors.

We cordially invite anyone travelling west to drop in for a visit and a cup of coffee.

Just remember, Pilli's Road.

Rune and Elsie Ostling

A Come and Go Tea will be held in the Guild Hall from 8 - 10 on Friday, July 12th, in honor of Mrs. Marilyn Kachur (nee Pearson), married June 28th in Lynn Lake, Manitoba.

SHOPPING TIPS

1. Packaged mixes and prepared frozen specialties are expensive. Decide which is more important: the time spared or the money saved.
2. Fancy, choice and standard grades of canned products are equally nutritious.
3. Read labels. Get what you really want. Don't pay extra for fancy packaging or "gimmicks"
4. Choose cereals for their food value not for the premiums or sweet coatings. Besides, you pay more for these "extras".
5. Plan menus ahead, stick to a shopping list. "Impulse buying can ruin your budget.
