MARRIED SIXTY YEARS

A throng of relatives and friends from Schreiber and out of town met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Moore at Walker Lake to mark their 60th wedding anniversary on September 2nd. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were married in Schreiber in the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hogg, by Rev. McAdie. They made their home in Schreiber until 1938 when they moved to Fort William, but have always maintained and returned each summer to their home at Walker Lake. A railway conductor, Mr. Moore retired in 1948. They have two sons; Douglas in Halifax, and Claude in Toronto. Also two grandchildren, John Moore in Toronto and Mrs. John Bridges in Montreal.

Many personal gifts were received, also many good wishes sent by card, telegram and flowers. Among the latter were two lovely arrangements from Mrs. Rita Carleton, Bermuda, and Mrs. Jayne Coons, in Elliott Lake, both nieces.

Formal congratulations were also received from the Prime Minister of Canada and Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth.

During the afternoon, tea was poured by Mrs. Moore's sisters, Mrs. Ethel Glenn, Mrs. J.J. Payne and Mrs. S.B. Christie. A niece, Mrs. M.B. McMurray served the guests. A dinner, for relatives and old friends, was served in St. Andrew's United Church Hall, Douglas Moore as M.C. and his brother Claude offered toasts to the happy couple. Other speeches were humorous with fond recollections of other social occasions with family and friends. The towering cake for the occasion was made by Mrs. Roy Henderson of Port Arthur.

In addition to the many local guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. Moore of Halifax, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moore and son John of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. N. Eady of Fort William, Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Payne, and John Payne Jr.; of Grand Bend; Mrs. M.B. McMurray of Collingwood; Mrs. Elizabeth Swanwick of North Kingston, Rhode Island; Mrs. Lily S.B. Christie and Mr. and Mrs. J. Conroy Henderson of Port Arthur; Mrs. Bert Newman, Mrs. Henry Davis; Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Black and Mrs. D.J. McCoshen of Fort William.
