DINNER PLANNED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce met last Thursday with D. Rafalant presiding. Routine business was dealt with and members discussed the fog driving hazard in relation to the town.

Plans were announced to hold a dinner meeting in November to which members will bring their wives. A guest speaker will be present. More details on this affair will be announced in the future.

ATTENTION MOOSE HUNTERS

The Dept. of Lands & Forests announce a restriction prohibiting the use of a non-resident deer licence in areas where there was an open season for non-residents to hunt moose. Conservation officers are exercising special vigilance to ensure each hunter is hunting only the game provided for by the licence he carries. It related to hunters using deer licenses when actually moose hunting was causing an undue amount of difficulty.

AGUASABON GOLF CLUB WINDUP

PRESIDENT AL PATTISON PRESENTS KIMBERLY-CLARK TROPHY TO FATHER A. HARRIS, EMBLEMATIC OF THE CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

The annual windup of the Aguasabon Golf Club was held last Friday, October 18th in the Masonic Hall.

Trophies for the past were formally presented, with President Al Pattison acting as Master of Ceremonies for the evening. A film on golfing was shown, after which dancing and refreshments were enjoyed to the music of Tony Commisso and Stanley Spadoni.
