

Masquerade Ball - cont'd from page 14

FIRST PRIZE WINNERS - Mrs. Gerry Thrower and Mrs. Bill Campbell, as Totem Poles. -photos by I. McCuaig

A.C.W. TEA AND COUNTRY FAIR

-photo by Inez McCuaig

Looking after the sewing table at the ACW tea and Country Fair were Mrs. T. Wilson, left and Mrs. G. Birch.

A successful Tea and Country Fair was held by the Schreiber Anglican Church Women on Nov. 2 in the Town Hall. Mrs. Jack Corbett was cashier.

Guests were served by Mesdames F. V. Harness, P. R. Bailey, Doug Moore, Ralph Morrill and the Misses Linda Lidkea, Christine Bottomley and Linda Birch.

Mrs. Alvin Slater was dining room hostess.

Mrs. Ted Wilson and Mrs. George Birch looked after the bazaar table. Mrs. J. D. Bryson was in charge of the table of home baking.

Mrs. Wesley Miller sold tickets on a floral centre piece which was won by Michael Thrower.

Tina Yates operated the fish pond and Ann Bailey and Pam Winters sold novelties at the Girls' Auxiliary table.

Assisting in the kitchen were Mesdames Cyril Sparkes, A. C. Rigelsford, Jack Bryson, Norman Bottomley, David Harrison and Godfrey Birch.

ROSSPORT

(See photos by Mrs. Todesco on pages 11, 9)

Rosspport Recreation Club sponsored a Halloween Party in the hall recently under the con- venership of Mrs. Tom Yandon.

School youngsters decorated the hall with orange and black streamers, g h o s t s, skeletons, witches, cats and pumpkins in corners and nooks.

Several fine original and fancy costumes were worn by the chil- dren which made it difficult for Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. H. Buitindyk and Mrs. Herb Lif, judges to pick the winners.

Winners were:

Original - Anita Bouchard, first; Darwin Gerow, second; and Cathy Gerow, third.

Comic - Tommy Bouchard, first; Naomi and Wayne Yandon second; and Larry Paradis, third.

Fancy - Terry Ann Bouchard, first; Anna Bain, second; and Peter Gerow and Robert Bou- chard, third.

The youngsters presented a program of songs and skits with Shirley Ann Spence (Hazel The Witch) as chairman.

Among those taking part in the program were Laurie Anne Mushqush, Audrey Spencer, Shirley Bouchard, Maxine Hu- belit, Shirley Ann Spencer, Hil- ton and Joyce Mushqush, Agnes Mushqush, Cathy Gerow, Anita Bouchard, Shirley Ann Spencer, Audrey Spencer, Alice Bouchard Brenda Spencer, Larry Paradis, Tommy Bouchard and Leona Goodchild.

Lunch was served followed by games and contests.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hubelit and Maxine were Wawa visitors over the weekend.

Peter Karpuk has returned from Port Arthur. Fred Auger is visiting relatives at Pays Plat. Mrs. Mary Mushqush is visiting friends and relatives at Nipigon and Geraldton.

Mrs. Mildred Price left Friday to visit relatives in Powassan, Ontario.

Rev. Father W. Farrell of Petrolia, Jack Todesco of Sarnia and J.R. Douglas of Beardmore were with Mr. and Mrs. C. Todesco over the long weekend.

Guests of the Eugene Gerow's over the weekend, were Mr. and Mrs. P. King and son Scott and Mrs. A. King of Chapleau, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Ray of Chippawa Falls, Wisc. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Kenney.

Prizes were won by Camilla Legault, Hattie Yan- don and Mildred Price when the Five Hundred Club played their weekly games on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Angela Testori. The hostess served luncheon to the members.

President, Mrs. E. Gerow, opened the regular meeting of the Altar Society with prayers for world peace when they met at the home of Mrs. F. Legault on Thursday evening. Eight members responded to roll call with an article for the penny auction. Sec- retary Mrs. H. Legault read the minutes and corres- pondence. A letter from Plum Grove Nurseries re- garding rose bushes to be replaced at the church and one from the Times Journal inviting the group to en- ter favorite recipes in the annual cook book contest were discussed. Members decided to compile a

(Cont'd on page 12)