

TO THE ELECTORS OF TERRACE BAY

This will confirm my previous announcement that I am offering myself for re-election as your Reeve for the 1969-70 term of office and am again asking for your support. I wish to re-affirm my thanks for the confidence already shown me.

Council has had a most successful two years due, at least in part, to the fine co-operation existing with all appointed local boards and Kimberly-Clark Corporation.

To the many newcomers to Terrace Bay whom I have not had the opportunity of meeting, may I tell you that I am the retired local Postmaster. I opened the post office here in January 1947 and have been actively associated with practically every organization formed in Terrace Bay, from the first Teen Age and Boy Scout Committees on through seven years on the Improvement District Board, before we had an elected Council, on which I served and left to become Chairman of the Centennial Committee in 1965, and your Reeve for 1967-68.

I have found that this background has served me well over the past two years.

Due to all the new Legislation being imposed upon us by the Ontario Government, to mention only the new District School Board and Regional Government, with all their uncertainties, this next two years is going to be of the utmost importance to the taxpayers of all municipalities and points up to the serious consideration we voters must give to this year's elected officers.

I must mention how pleased I was to witness the 66 '69?

Happy Birthday!

Now you may qualify for your retirement pension under the Canada Pension Plan.

If you are now 66 . . . if you've been contributing to the Canada Pension Plan . . . and if you've retired from regular employment, contact your Canada Pension Plan Office now. If you will become 66 in 1969, get in touch with your Canada Pension Plan Office three months before your birthday. The people there will help you fill out the application form that starts your pension cheques coming. They'll explain how your pension is worked out . . . and when you become eligible. You'll get all the answers to questions about your retirement pension. Payment is not automatic. You must apply to receive your pension benefits. Application should be made in the Canada Pension Plan Office serving your community.

NOTE: If you are age 70 or over and have contributed to the Canada Pension Plan, you don't have to retire to qualify for benefits.

The district offices in this area are listed below

ISSUED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL HEALTH AND WELFARE, THE HONOURABLE JOHN MUNRO, MINISTER

fine turnout for the nomination meeting and the number of women actively involved. I trust this is an indication of a record vote on election. If elected I can promise you the same personal attention to the problems of all our citizens as I think I have given in the past.

W. E. CAVANAUGH