

The Angel's Harp

December 19 was the School Finals for the Public Speaking Contest at Holy Angels. Each pupil from Grades 6, 7 and 8 prepared a speech and delivered it before the class. Five top speakers in the three grades were Cheryl Karns, Darlene Desmoulins, Beth Ross, Mary Costa and Gaetane Chicoine.

Photo above are the five judges, Mr. C. LeBlanc, Reverend Prinselaar, Mrs. H. Tripp, Mrs. J. Sisson and Mr. B. Stewart for the Public Speaking Contest. Beth Ross was chosen to represent the school in February in the Hydro Public Speaking Contest. Beth is a Grade 8 pupil and is pictured below being congratulated by Sister St. Timothy, Principal and Mr. Speziale, her teacher.

Santa visited Holy Angels School last Thursday bringing with him several treats for all the boys and girls in the school, through the courtesy of the P.T.A. C.W.L. and Chapples.

Paul Moorey tells Santa what he would like for Christmas. Santa promises to do his best to bring everyone a gift for Christmas.

"How do you like the swell horn I found this morning?"
