KNIGHT-ROTMARK (continued from Page 8)

Leaving on a honeymoon to Toronto and Eastern points the bride donned a duchess green wool suit and matching hat, black accessories and white rose corsage. They will reside in Geraldton, Ontario.

The bride was entertained at the Community Church at a shower arranged by Mrs. Knight's sewing group and bridge club with hostess Mrs. Jean Roberts.

Out of town guests were from Geraldton, Nipigon, Port Arthur, Fort William, Niagara Falls and Schreiber. Telegrams were received from Aunt Jean, Manchester, England, principal and staff of Alma College, St. Thomas, Ontario and Mrs. P. Price Westcliffe on the Sea, Essex, England.

MR. & MRS. BROMLEY ENTERTAINED

Many friends in the community gathered in the town hall to pay tribute to Mr. & Mrs. J.D. Bromley leaving to make their home in Toronto. Mr. Bromley had been superintendent of the Schreiber division, C.P.R. from October 1, 1965. Their family was honoured on various occasions and presented with gifts by the young crowd.

They had both been active in the work of the United Church and school programs.

W.C. Tripp was M.C. for the evening and on behalf of their friends presented Mr. & Mrs. Bromley with a stereo Am-FM radio and record player mentioning that it was with regret that Schreiber would be losing them.

Frank Fummerton spoke particularly of Mr. Bromley's contribution to the arena and presented a gift from the rink committee.

Other gifts presented were by Pat Newton for the Artificial Ice Fund, Norman Boon for Junior hockey, and Reg. Bailey for Minor Hockey.

Rev. E.C. Prinselaar and Father J.M. Cano also paid tribute to the Bromleys.

Mr. Tripp read messages from employees unable to attend from Chapleau and other points.

Mr. Bromley will be engaged in the vast new waterfront development in Toronto.

Out of town guests included Mr. & Mrs. M.C. Kelly, Marathon, Mr. & Mrs. Steve Nickoluk, Terrace Bay and Karl Kazmierczak of White River.

Mrs. Leonard O'Brien and daughter Mary Lynn spent New Years in Markstay, with Mr. & Mrs. D'Arcy MacDonald.

Mr. & Mrs. G.B. Cebrario entertained the CPR office staff on January 2 in honour of Mrs. Cebrario's father, Harry Shack, who retired from his job as roadmaster in Schreiber.
