can be paid at the Recreation Office. Minimum number of registrations for each course is 8. Unless this number is obtained, courses will be cancelled. Mrs. H. Brooks is instructress.

Gymnastics Clinic - We will host a clinic in the latter part of February, which will be open to all interested gymnasts on the North Shore. More information will be printed as available.

Afternoon Recreation For Ladies - From interest indicated by several, it would appear that afternoon recreation would be popular for those who are not able to go out evenings. If you would like to join other ladies in the afternoon recreation such as shuffleboard (floor), card games, hobbies, etc., to be held in the Recreation Centre, call the office and give us an idea of what type of recreation you favour.

Millinery Course - will be held here on February 21, 22, 23 a weekend, and will take the form of a workshop. Mrs. Lozowy, T.V. personality from the Lakehead is instructor. We must know how many ladies will be taking the course, so please try to phone the Recreation Office - 3542 as soon as possible.

Coming Courses - The Textile Painting course will be approximately an 8 week course starting in the month of February. Mr. J Cumming will instruct and it is not too early to indicate your interest in the course to the Recreation Office.
