

Congregational Meeting - cont'd from page 5

The overall picture, financially, the Board felt was a healthy one, although with rising costs in every department, including higher rates of postage, the Church needs more monetary support, as well as physical and moral.

A visitation Committee will be set up shortly and they will visit not only new Protestant families in town, but also all members and adherents of the Community Church. They will attempt to find out the members want, or what they dislike about their Church, and what is needed to make it more meaningful for them. It has been said that the army can't march on an empty stomach, and the Church cannot go forward with empty pews.

The monthly bulletin has been discontinued, because of an apparent lack of interest.

The need for a new Organ presents a real challenge that cannot be overlooked. While there has been a Memorial Organ Fund set up, and donations are welcome, the present organ will not last, and there must be a plan whereby money is raised to purchase a new one soon.

Let's get out and support our Community Church with prayers, our presence, as well as our dollars.

We didn't like the article in The Observer, so why not set out to disprove it? We don't pretend to be living in Paradise, but we can make it a better town in which to live and worship, but we need YOU!

An Inter-faith Service will be held in the High School on Sunday evening, January 26th at 7 p.m. with Father Harris and Rev. Husser taking part, as well as members of various youth and adult organizations, with the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay sponsoring the event.

Future plans of the Church include re-structuring of the two Church Boards into one working Board; Re-organization of the Sunday School, looking toward Junior Church and Youth Clubs. Bert Lohr needs the support of every parent if his hard work and long range plans are to have any effect. Teachers are always needed, but parents are urged to see that the children attend Sunday School.

With the coming of a new year, the Community Church will be entering into conversations with Schreiber, towards co-operative services in the summer and perhaps joint ministry of both Boards and Ministers.

The Church Board also has plans to completely re-decorate the interior of the Church.
