The Director of Recreation for Terrace Bay and representative of the Thunder Bay Amateur Hockey Association, David Courtemanche is shown presenting a cheque for $400.00 to Tom Pollard, President of the Terrace Bay Minor Hockey Association.

This cheque is presented under the Pro-Amateur Agreement between pro hockey clubs and the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, and represents the draft payment for the development of Daniel Schock, who played Minor Hockey in Terrace Bay in 1962-63 and 1963-64.

Minor Hockey organizations which assist in the development of hockey players who are drafted by pro clubs will receive financial assistance as their share in the development of a player.

The Thunder Bay Amateur Hockey Association wishes to congratulate the Terrace Bay Minor Hockey Association in their development of this player and their fine efforts in their promotion of Minor Hockey in Terrace Bay.
