GORDON DODGE HONOURED AT RETIREMENT LUNCHEON

Gordon retired from the Kimberly-Clark Pulp and Paper Company on February 4th. A Company-sponsored luncheon was held for him at the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel on that date attended by 8 of his fellow employees.

Mill Manager John Ferrier congratulated Gordon on his retirement and presented him with his pension letter outlining his Kimberly-Clark life-time pension, his Gold Pass entitling him to visit any Kimberly-Clark operation and a framed coloured picture of Terrace Bay.

On January 31st the Mill Accounting Staff with their wives attended a dinner honouring Gordon and Jessie Dodge and presented them with gifts.

On February 7th a large gathering of friends attended a stag for Gordon at the Moose Hall.

Gordon started employment with Kimberly-Clark in 1946 and worked as townsite construction cost clerk until mill start-up in 1948 when he worked in the mill cost department. In 1955 he was promoted to Paymaster which job he held on retirement.
