

SWEETHEART BONSPIEL ENJOYED BY ALL

The Annual Sweetheart Bonspiel was held on February 7, 8 & 9th, at the Terrace Bay Curling Club, with the Sweetheart Queen, Vera Kennedy, throwing the first rock, to open the event. Keen competition and close games were evident throughout the spiel, with the ladies showing the men how a game should be skipped.

The highlight of the three day event was the Saturday evening social which featured a lively and most amusing floor show, with Ollie Chapman as Commentator. Two gorgeous Bunny girls made their appearance and delighted the audience with their willingness to wait on tables, hoping of course for the inevitable tips. As they performed their duty, an all girl band, composed of some of the more talented ladies of the club, thrilled their friends with the rendition of three numbers - Happy Trumpeters, Lily Marlene and Give My Regards to Broadway.

Such was the applause that there was no doubt in the minds of anyone present, that they were the best quintet to ever entertain in Terrace Bay. Perhaps the most hilarious part of the show was a scene depicting the five phases of Women, acted out by some of the more shapely members of the Club. These included the Day dreaming Secretary, the harassed Housewife, the Dedicated Clubwoman, the Femme Fatale, and the Prima Donna Ballerina all most suitably attired in their respective costumes. As a finale the two Bunny girls were called upon to crown the Queen of the Sweetheart Bonspiel Vera Kennedy, and her Concert Cupid, Clem LeMay,
