

Schreiber

Mrs. George Lehto was in Sudbury last week to attend the funeral of her brother, C. K. Korpela.

Bert Morris is in Aylmer, Quebec, attending the funeral of his brother, Ronald Morris.

Special prayers are being said in churches for the many children in town suffering from various illnesses.

The Schreiber Gospel Mission is now affiliated with the Hiawatha Baptist Mission and has changed its name to Grace Baptist Church. A pastor is presently under appointment. Rev. R. L. Dye of Northville, Mich., recently spoke and is expected to be in Schreiber for the Easter services.

The local women's inter-faith council which includes St. Andrew's United Church, St John's Anglican, Holy Angels' Roman Catholic, the Lutheran, and the Gospel Mission, met to make arrangements for the World Day of Prayer, a service of Prayer and Commitment. The World theme this year is "Growing Together In Christ". The service will be held in Holy Angels' Church on Feb 28 and all women in the community are invited to attend.

Following the service a film will be shown and lunch served in the Parish Centre. The committee in charge will hold a practice on Feb 24 at 7.30.

Miss Marjorie Bolan, bride-elect of February 15 was honored at a shower tea held in the Catholic parish centre when her mother Mrs. Pat Bolan and Miss Ann Marie McGrath assisted her in receiving.

The tea was poured by Mrs. Henry Dimmery and Mrs. Russell Campell, Mrs. Tom Bolan, and Marjorie's grandmother, and Mrs. Bill Whent.

Mrs. John MacIsaac was dining room hostess. The servitors were the Misses Linda Power, Kathy LeBlanc, Jane Bailey, Judy Walker, Susan Dimmery, Debbie Lidkea, Marta Krystia, and Linda Comeau. Judy Wiznuk opened the gifts and Noreen Needham was in charge of the guestbook. Replenishing were Mesdames Joe Wills, John Wwznuk, Bob Turner, Bill Stefurak, Michael McGrath, and Lawrence Tremblay.

Mesdames Wesley Clemens, Russel MacAdam, Frank Fummerton, and C. Pinselar will attend the Women's Presbytery meeting on Feb. 25 at First Church United Fort William.

Among the Student Teachers in town this week are Misses Marcia Smith, Eva Forsyiaik, Marilyn Lehtanen, and Dominic Pallagrino, Louie Romito and Greg Cox. At the Separate School with Jeanne McGuaig, Sandra Clemens, Frances Cook staying in Schreiber but teaching in Terrace Bay. Those from Schreiber being Jeanne McGuaig, Sandra Clemens and Dominic Pallagrino. All from the Lakehead Teachers College.

R O S S P O R T

Prizes were won by Mrs. Angela Testori, Mrs. Patsey Campbell and Mrs. Bertha Lif when the weekly games of Five Hurd red were played by the club Wednesday evening. Mrs. Prina Testori hosted the event and served luncheon.

The Union Church Ladies Aid members met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Legault Tuesday evening for the regular monthly meeting. President Mrs. T.F. Seppala chaired the meeting; Mrs. Ibey read the minutes and letters and presented the financial statement. Several pieces of yard goods were distributed to be sewn or embroidered at the sewing Bee which will be held at the Inn on the following Monday. The hostess served refreshments.

The members of the St. Berchman's Altar Society met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Eugene Gerow for the February meeting. Eight members were present and a new member, Mrs. Romeo Bouchard, was welcomed into the circle. President, Mrs. Gerow led in the opening and closing prayers and discussions on the agenda. Minutes were read by Mrs. H. Legault and Mrs. F. Legault presented a very satisfactory financial statement. It was decided not to sponsor any money making projects until later in the spring. Instead, members decided to order more yard goods, wool and crochet cotton for the sewing cupboard and spent the time making articles for the bazaar table. The president extended greetings to Mrs. C. Todesco on her 41st wedding anniversary and to Mrs. P. Testori on her 43rd wedding anniversary, both of this month, and birthday wishes to Mrs. M. Hubelit.

Mrs. Annie Molinski of Beaujours, Manitoba is in the village visiting her son Lorne and family and renewing acquaintances.

Mrs. W. Hubelit returned Thursday from Port Arthur General Hospital.

Anna Bain is a patient in Terrace Bay Hospital.

Glen Gerow left Friday for his home in Fort William after visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hubelit, the past week.

Wm. Cherutti of Port Arthur is in town assisting Albert Rouble harvest his ice supply for the coming fishing season.

---

He: "Do you serve women at the bar?"
Bartender: "Sorry, you have to bring your own."