McCausland was the one doctor giving medical attention to them. During these two months, he had to cope with a pronounced surge of cases brought by the flu epidemic, during which period there were as many as 63 employees absent due to sickness at on times.

Mr. Ferrier added "Much of the limelight is today focused on specialists in the field of medicine, but basing our evaluation on the sound philosophy of doing the greatest amount of good for the greatest number of people we feel that you as a General Practitioner have earned our grateful thanks and admiration for duty over and above the normal call."

Dr. Moffat has joined the staff at Terrace Bay Private Hospital and Dr. McCausland will soon be able to take a well earned rest.

Reeve Cavanaugh welcomed students from Terrace Bay High School, with their teacher Mr. Ken McLeod, when they came to observe Town Council is session. Minutes were read by Clerk Hanley, and adopted.
