LAKEHEAD SCHOOL OF HOCKEY

Rudy Migay, one of the Lakehead's most successful hockey personalities, will be one of the Lakehead School of Hockey's full-time coaches. Migay joins a staff of eight and possibly more coaches who'll be working in the first summer hockey school to be held in Northwestern Ontario.

Migay is a former assistant captain of Toronto Maple Leafs, a team he played with for ten seasons. He now coaches Amarillo Wranglers of the Central Hockey League. Wranglers, who have two well-know local stars in the persons of Ray Auddono and Dave Simpson, are flying high in the CHL with just one loss in their last thirteen games.

He's been in professional hockey for nearly twenty years and it is this all-round experience which will be passed to those registering for the summer hockey school. Further information on the school can be obtained by writing - Lakehead School of Hockey Box 522, Fort William, Ontario.

agricultural producers and students. Running time of the film is 27 minutes.
