HANDICRAFT SHOW

A most interesting display of handicraft was presented in the high school, sponsored by the youth and Recreation Association. Exhibited were wood carving, paper mache, articles, hooked rugs and other needle work, copper work, and collections of both natural and polished rock, some native to this area and some from other countries.

Frank Potocnik, president of the Lakehead Craft Association and Regional Director of the Ontario

Craft Association, demonstrated woodcarving, Mrs. Mary Kozak of Nipigon was doing copper work and Mrs. Florence Tamblyn of Port Arthur, was working on a hooked rug.

Lorne O'Neil, of Schreiber had a handsome table of polished stones, some in beautiful settings, and Bob Kragero of Schreiber had a display of unpolished rock. There was also a display of finished stones brought from the Lakehead. Rev. C.E. Prinselaar and Jack Bryson welcomed the callers and Mrs. Prinselaar served the coffee and doughnuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tucker who have left Schreiber were given a farewell party in Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gellert's home by the Bank of Montreal staff on whose behalf Jack Friesen the manager presented a clothes hamper with good wishes. The congregation of St. Andrew's United Church presented a brief case to Mr. Tucker in token of their appreciation of the support and interest both he and Mrs. Tucker gave to the life of the Church - Mr. Tucker being the treasurer.

During their almost two years in Schreiber the young couple won a round of friends who were quick to offer congratulations on Mr. Tucker's transfer to the Melville Sask., Branch as appointed accountant.

Students of Ethel Smitheman who recently passed Grade Two theory examinations set by Western Conservatory of Music included Sharon Scott, Dorothy Lengyel, Barbara Stefurak, Mrs. June Sisson, Leslie Rae Thompson, First Class honors, Roberta Milani, honors, and Ann Needham, pass.

Tony Commisso and Lola Scott, pupils of Our Lady Of The Angels' Convent also received First Class honors in Grade Two theory, writing at the same time as the others.

Instead of their usual St. Patrick's Day dinner the Catholic Women's League are holding a tea this year - from 2 - 4.30 in the Guild Hall when tickets will be sold and the items for the Penny sale at 7.30 that evening on display.

Gerald Blanchette has come from Kamsack, Sask. to replace Jim Tucker as Second Officer in the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Timmerman and daughter Amy of Red Rock visited Mrs. Timmerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jartus last week.

Dr. G.K. Searles is leaving Schreiber for Toronto at the end of the month and as (cont'd on page 14)
