TOWN TOPICS

heated homes, etc.

Kimberley Clark Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd. stated that Certificates of Ownership for 50% Blocks of new Lakeview Extension are being transferred to the Township for parks and other purposes.

The Department of Finance of Canada advised that the grant in lieu of taxes for 1968 will be paid: A letter from Gordon Dodge advising insurance is available for Councillors while travelling on Township business. This will be investigated.

The proprietor of Gem Texaco Service requested that work on the Township Police Cruiser be divided between the garages in town. He also stated that he had had no Fire Truck gas business in the last two years. A reply will be sent, advising that the amount of gas used by the Fire Truck is next to nil, and furthermore that servicing and gas supplies for all the township vehicles are split among the three garages in turn, in what Council feels is an equitable distribution.

The Fire Department reported a quiet month. G. Delong will retire and the vacancy will be filled in the near future.

CANCER SOCIETY

The Cancer Society held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Lil Harris on March 10, with a full attendance of members.

Mrs. Harris reported on the District Campaign meeting held at the Prince Arthur Hotel, on Feb. 1st. Plans were outlined for the Cancer Campaign which takes place in April.

Daffodil Sunday is the first Sunday in April, the 6th. and signifies the start of Cancer Month. The meeting was adjourned and Mrs. Harris served a delicious lunch.

St. Martin's Grade 8 pupils will be selling Easter candy boxes - chocolates and peppermint patties - $1.00 a box, after the 23rd. of March. Each house will only be canvassed once. Please support this effort.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

St. Martin's Separate School sponsored a most successful Public Speaking Contest among their own pupils at the Terrace Bay (cont'd page 7)
