

Public Speaking - Continued from page 2

High School Auditorium Sunday evening. It was a well run, fast moving contest and the candidates were interesting in their chosen topics. Father Harris opened with a Prayer. Principal Mr. M. Anderson introduced the candidates by number. There were three divisions, primary, junior and senior.

Judges were Mr. L. Hibbitt, head judge, Sister St. Timothy, Holy Angels, Schreiber and Mr. D. Briscoe of Terrace Bay Public School. Timekeeper was Mr. E. McAdam.

At intermission and while the judges were out making their decision, the St. Martin's School Choir entertained with several selections led by Sister Rebeccah.

It is hoped that this will become an annual event.

Primary Division: John Bouchard, Jimmy Mitchell, Valerie Stortini, and Douglas Angus.

Junior Division: Jane Anne Doyle, Janet Roberts, Diane Allen, Debbie Johnson, Richard Petrus, and Peter Dashkewytch, Senior Division: Patrick Heenan, Janine Pineault, Beverly Legault, and Lorraine Dobush.

Winners in the St. Martins Public Speaking Contest. Lorraine Dobush, Janet Roberts, and John Bouchard. All photos by M. Lundberg.

GIRL GUIDES PRESENTED BADGES

Girl Guides of the Second Guide Company, Terrace Bay who passed their Home Nursing Tests were presented with their St. Hohn Certificates by Mrs. J. Jartus. They were Sherry Boutillier, Darlene Suo, Susan Pluta, Wendy Schritt, Teresa Ramsay, Terresa Falzetta, Beverley Legault, Linda McInyk, Georgina Caron, Carla Calder, Frances Cook, Adele Desrosiers, and Brenda Chapman.

From the First Company, Certificates were presented by Commissioner S. Caron to Marilyn Kujbida, and Celine Landry.

New Guides enrolled were Debra Cvitkovich, Debra Vienneau, Julie Randa, Michelle Stortini, and Lori Schritt.

Seamstress Badges were presented to Beverley Legault and Teresa Ramsay. (cont'd page 8)